

POMLIF: Journal of Library and Information Science
(Volume 1, Number 1, 2018)

Editorial

It is my pleasure to present a new journal in the field library and information science by the polytechnics and monotechnic foundation library foundation om offshoot of the committee of the polytechnics and monotechnic librarians in Nigeria. The journal has eminent librarians and educators as consulting educators such as Prof. Niran Adetoro, Dr. Adeyinka Tella, Dr. R. Egunjobi, Mr. A. O. Adebimpe, Dr. Jasuliu Kadri and Prof. (Mrs.) Blessing Ahiazu. We sincerely appreciate them for accepting to sorry in the capacity.

The articles covered in this first issue has topics of interest ranging from information and communication technology use and the substance of the change agenda in Nigeria information needs ,access to an use of electronic information resources by student of agriculture, Igbo Ora, Oyo state , Nigeria ,ICT use and the substance of the change agenda in academic librarian in Nigeria academic libraries as an impetus for change in Nigeria influence of ICT on the attitude and skills of academic librarians in three selected polytechnic librarian in north - central Nigeria , The roles of public and national libraries in attainment of National department in Nigeria, Academic libraries and department promotion of higher education for change in Nigeria. Actualizing the Nigeria change agenda through Access to information: The role of libraries, challenges of ICT system in Government owned Tertial Institution libraries in Nigeria and Academic Library as a pivot of Higer Education for change in Nigeria.

The challenges of publishing in the country are enormous but it is out hope that this journal will be able to meet the test of time and will continue to sustain itself. The journal shall continue to provide current state of the art knowledge on topical issues is the profession and allied profession.

We wish to encourage our numerous contributors, readers and colleagues in the profession to contribute to future issues

Dr. R. F. Quadri
Editor-in-chief.